MIKEL-DENNIS—At the home of the bride's parents in Havana, Ill., December 10, '96, Mr. J. T. Mikel, the Home Insurance man of Laplata, and Miss Florence Dennis.

The wedding presents were many, both costly and beautiful. A host of friends witnessed the ceremony. The bridal couple arrived at Laplata the following Saturday and are at home to their friends. The Graphic congratulates.

Died.

EARHART—At the home of his parents, J. T. and Minerva Earhart, Dec. 19, 1896, Virgil Earle Earhart, aged 19 years, 8 months and 14 days.

All that loving hearts and hands could do to ward off the fell destroyer was faithfully done; but without avail. Death claimed his own, and loving friends are grief-stricken.

Earle was dutiful to his parent industrious in his habits, home-loving and social in disposition and quite aesthetical in his tastes.

HERREN—At his home in Illinois Bend, December 11, 1896, James Herren, aged 68 years.

He was born in Ireland and with his parents emigrated to Canada when four years old. In early manhood he came to Illinois thence to Missouri, and settled on the farm where he had since resided. He was a prosperous farmer, and an excellent citizen. Burial took place the following Saturday in LaPlata cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Crouch, pastor of the Baptist church at Atlanta.
